

The proposed rules change is movement in exactly the WRONG direction. We need more diversity and local control, not less. Clearly the FCC is being "bought" by the media giants. Any changes to the rules should be to roll them back to the way they were before the previous rules change. It is shameful the way the public is being shut out of this decision.